

Interfaith Campus Ministry Provides Opportunities for Leadership

Leadership: An Integrated Life of Spirit, Intellect, and Integrity

The professional staff of Rev. Adrienne Berry-Burton and Ms. Jennifer Sparrow work with students providing public speaking, event planning and leadership opportunities. Whether it is an invitation to read at a religious service, share their artistic talents at a talent share, or working together to plan one of the large group events like annual Faith Alive! Interfaith discussion with invited experts, student had multiple opportunities to use all of their talents and their beliefs. The planning executive board of Faith Alive Interfaith Council planned discussions, fun with a purpose—Faith Word Scrabble, lectures and community service.

Shermel and Hana shared words of wisdom with undergrads. Each shared their appreciation of the chapel for being a place where they found words of encouragement, peace and balance.

“While my classmates would compare answers after an exam, I just came here... I needed to pray and regain balance. I found my balance here.”

Hana, Class of '09

“I was so glad to find this place. It was always so peaceful here... And if I ever got discouraged, I knew I could find encouragement here.”
