Overview:

Restriction OR Revocation

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), as amended, protects the privacy of educational records, establishes the rights of students to inspect and review their educational records, and provides guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings.

FERPA requires each institution to allow students to restrict OR release their directory information. Please be aware that this FERPA Directory restriction will result in the following:

- Student name will not appear in the commencement program, or be provided to media outlets for honors (i.e. Dean's List) and graduation announcements.
- Verification of enrollment, graduation, or degrees awarded will not be provided to third parties, including potential employers and insurance companies unless specifically authorized.
- Directory information will not be released to any person on the telephone, in person, or via email.

I, the undersigned, hereby request the Registrar's Offices of University of Massachusetts to restrict OR release the Directory Information contained in my file at UMass. I understand that none of my Directory Information will be released unless I, the undersigned, should subsequently provide consent to release this Directory Information.
